

Congregation Beth Emek is again excited to invite all lifelong learners and seekers of knowledge to join us for a new class series taught by master lecturer and scholar Ken Cohen: "THE GREATEST STORY EVER TOLD: WHO WROTE THE BIBLE?"

In this 8-week class, beginning on Tuesday, April 13, we will explore who created the Bible, who edited the Bible and who canonized the Bible -- and what are the continuing implications today of those decisions. Ken will also examine whether and to what extent recent archaeological finds confirm, deny or alter Biblical accounts of Jewish history.

Class will be held on Tuesday evenings from April 13 through June 8 from 7:30 – 9:30 p.m. at Beth Emek (w/ a 15-minute break for refreshments). (There will be no class on Tuesday, May 18 in observance of Shavuot.)

Register for "The Greatest Story Ever Told: Who Wrote the Bible?" by completing the form below and returning it with a check to the attention of Ellen Kiefer, Beth Emek Administrator at Congregation Beth Emek, 3400 Nevada Court, Pleasanton, CA 94566. (Online registration is not available at this time.)

The fee for the class is $125.00 for Beth Emek members and $150.00 for non-members. EARLY BIRD SPECIAL FOR BETH EMEK MEMBERS – Sign up by the end of Passover (April 6, 2010) and pay only $100. Space is limited so sign up now! (Preference will be given to returning students from our fall class series.)

Ken Cohen served for 12 years as the president of Lehrhaus Judaica. He is an adjunct professor at San Francisco State University and has lectured at numerous universities. He has taught over one thousand students about the Dead Sea Scrolls and has served as a consultant to the De Young Museum and the new Contemporary Jewish Museum in San Francisco. Ken continues to teach a 15-year-long weekly Bible seminar in Berkeley, closely reading all of the books of the Bible.
